Samantha the magic blue fairy loves humorous similes; you know, those comparisons that use the words “like” or “as.” Draw a magical line (Use a colored magic marker!) between the two columns to finish the similes.

The monster climbed the mountain

as a rotten tomato.

The troll's breath was as bad

like an Olympic champion.

The rough warlock looked like

as a shy toddler.

The nerdy alligator was as awkward

a teenager who just rolled out of bed.

Circle the similes in the following sentences:

The baker made a cupcake that was as sweet as a bowl of honey.

The pirate had eyes like a hawk as he searched for treasures.

The siblings fought like cats and dogs about who got to try the new toy first.

The toast tasted as dry as a bone until it was slathered with butter.

The alien turned out to be as scared as a rabbit when it came out of the spaceship.

 Draw a picture of your simile here if you like:

Write your own simile here:

Read the entire paragraph. Then use the information in the paragraph to help you draw and color the image.

Each year after Thanksgiving dinner my Aunt Claudia insists on taking a group picture of us kids. She is particular about how we stand next to each other. She put Jack next to June. Timmy stood to the right of June. Mary stood two to the left of Jack. When Marcus walked into the room carrying his football, he wasn't quite sure where to stand, but he quickly figured it out. Good thing there were three people between us. We always make each other laugh. Aunt Claudia doesn't like us to joke around when she takes our picture.

What happens next?

Circle the digit in the hundredths place.
