Jane, Sally, and Michael are playing the Kids World Race app, a great new fun game (on their phones of course). They each made a new character. "Hey, check out this racing mini-game. Want to race?" asked Jane.

"Yeah! Let's go," replied Sally.

"I'm in!" yelled Michael.

They were off. It only took 80 seconds for the winner to reach the finish line.

Jane was 3 seconds faster than Sally. The difference between Sally's and Michael's time was only 7 seconds. Michael was 10 seconds behind Jane.

Who won?

Who lost?

Who came in second?
