

Coronavirus Stay-at-Home Order

Ideas on
What to do

©edHelper

Create Cards

Make a card for a front line worker, your grandparents, or anyone who needs cheering up. Do the cover first.

Then cut it out, fold on the center line, and write an encouraging message on the inside. Ask a parent to help you find an envelope, stamp, and then mail it.

Back

Cover

©edHelper

Seeking Solutions

Keep busy and stay sharp by solving these word problems.

Use the right edge for your work area. ↘

Sam put 8 plastic bottles in the empty recycling bin. A day later he put in 4 more. How many plastic bottles all together? _____

Ming drew and cut out 12 hearts. She was unhappy with 3 and threw them away. How many hearts are left to hang in the window? _____

Antonio helped his mom inside the house for 2 hours. He helped his dad in the yard for $4\frac{1}{2}$ hours. How much more did he help his Dad than his Mom? _____

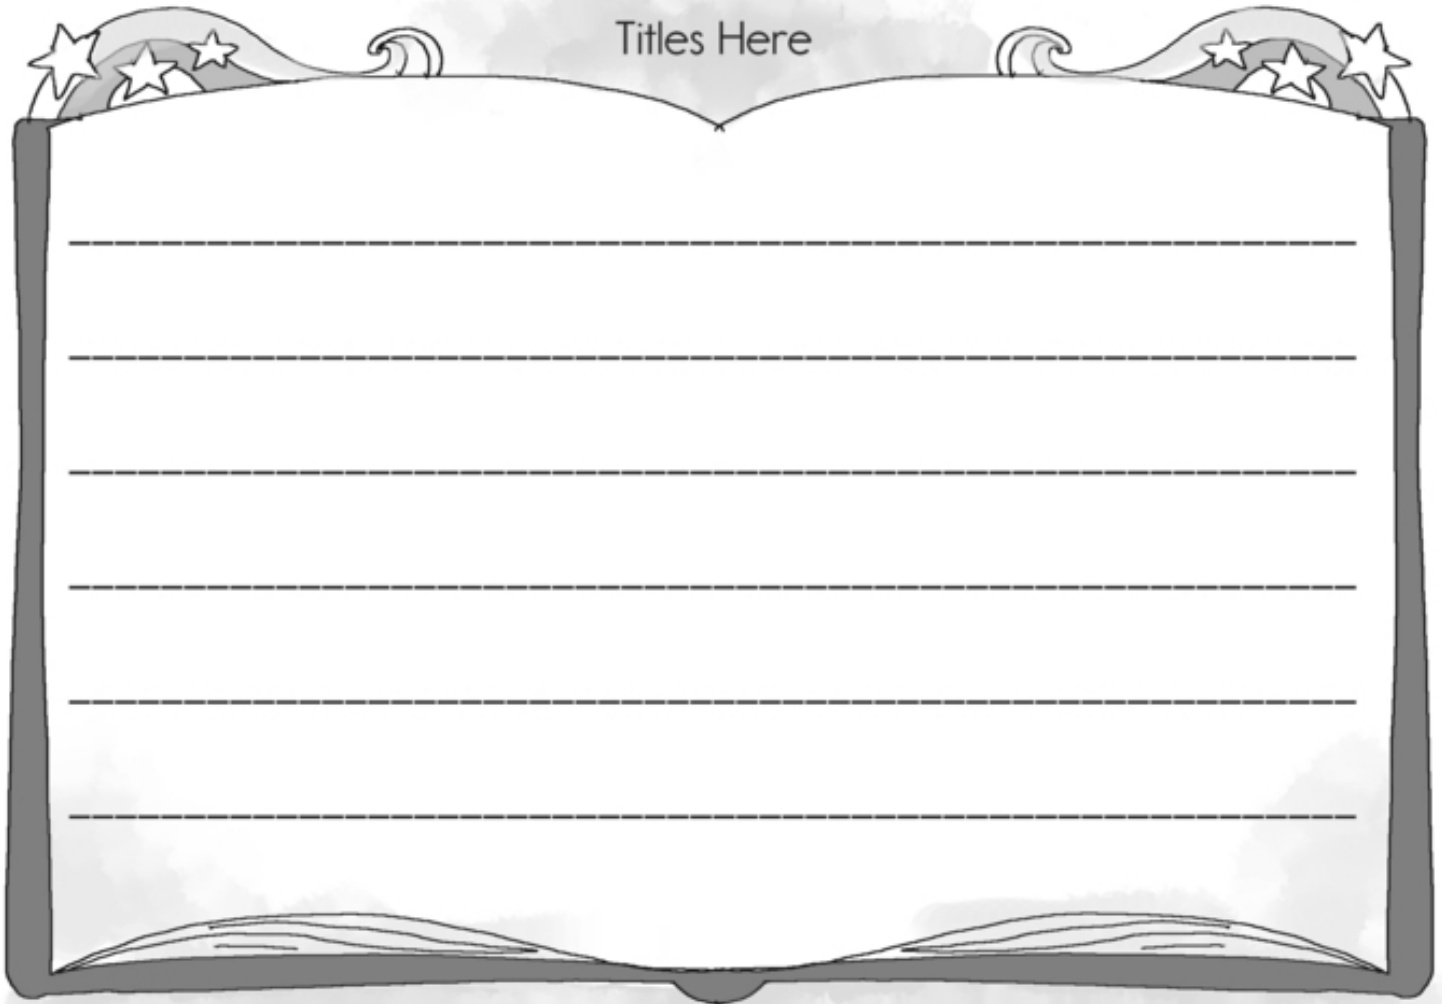

Gina did her schoolwork at the kitchen table, the living room floor, and a bedroom desk. If you double the amount of places she worked, how many would there be? _____

Reading Record

Reading books is a fantastic way to spend your time.
How many books have you read during this time? _____

List the Titles Here

A large, stylized illustration of an open book with a decorative border. The top corners of the book are adorned with stars and waves. The pages are blank, with horizontal dashed lines for writing. The text "List the Titles Here" is centered above the pages.

Put a star by your favorite and answer this question.

What was your favorite part?

Make a Meal

Now is the perfect time to offer to plan and make a dinner. Follow these steps.

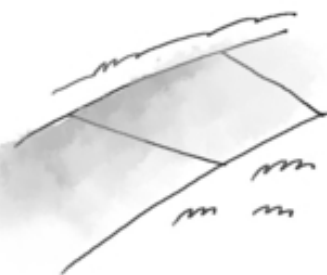

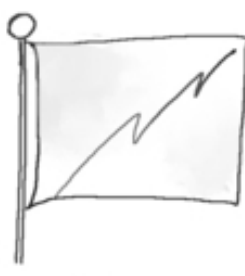

- A. Decide what you will have. Make sure you have ↓ all the ingredients you'll need.
- B. With an adult helper, refer to the recipe and make ↓ this meal. ♥♥♥
- C. Set the table and serve your creation.

Remember to help with the clean up. Stop and enjoy the good feelings that come from making ♥♥♥ others happy. ♥♥♥

Scavenger Stroll

Take a walk outside and put an "X" on everything you find.
Make copies for family members. Who found the most?

Clouds	Stump	House	Cat

Squirrel	Sidewalk	Leaf	Rabbit

Pond	Flag	Bird	Dandelions

Rock	Dog	Tree	Sun

Getting Grateful

Even though there have been a lot of unpleasant changes during COVID-19, there are still good things. Write about them here.

Remember- We're All in This Together!

