

Name: _____

You have many roles in your life. You are a son or daughter, a student, a friend, and maybe an employee. You also can be helpful, supportive, or cranky in your relationships. Think about your story character and how important his or her role is in your story. Let's go!

Write several sentences about what kind of job or chores your character does.

---

---

---

---

Write several sentences about the role your character has in the story; a villain, a hero, a main character, a supporting character.

---

---

---

---

Using complete sentences, write a paragraph about a day in the life of your character.

---

---

---

---

Name: _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

Draw an illustration of something meaningful to your character for his or her job or chores, or role in the story: